Introduction to the day

As we continue through the time after Epiphany, stories of the implications of our baptismal calling to show Christ to the world with good news and calling people to repentance right after John the Baptist in a similar way. Knowing that John was later executed, we see the discipleship. Still, the two sets of brothers leave everything behind their lives to follow Jesus and fish for people.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, one God, whose voice is poured out upon all people, whose goodness cascades

Let us confess our sin, trusting in the abundant grace of

Holy God,

you search us and know us. You are acquainted with that our hearts are burdened by sin— our own sins bind us. We turn inward, failing to follow your outward, distrust those who are not like us. We exploit the earth to consider generations to come.

Forgive us, gracious God, for all we have done and words are on our tongues, you know them; receive mercy. Amen.

How vast is God's grace! Through the power and presence of the Spirit, our sins are washed away and we are claimed as God's own people, forgiven. In the wake of God's forgiveness, we are called to be a community living out Christ's justice and the Spirit's love.
